

Important Reminder:

Crisis Resources: For the majority of individuals, the holidays can prove to be a source of stress. In addition, we are contending with a Pandemic that has created unprecedented conditions- causing all of our daily lives and routines to have changed in some form or another. The loss of many of our common outlets for stress relief, such as working out at the gym, visits to the library or coffee shop, etc. is also impacting all of us.

With the understanding in mind that most individuals are contending with a multitude of converging stressors simultaneously, please remember to care for yourself this holiday season and to practice kindness and offer compassion to others. The CDC has published information in this regard, and one such guide is attached to this email.

The following resources may also be beneficial to keep on hand, and please make sure to share with those who may need the information.

- The Pennsylvania's Support & Referral Helpline connects Pennsylvanians with mental and emotional support and to local resources. Call 855-284-2494 (TTY: 724-631-5600).
- Call 2-1-1 to reach the United Way and get connected to help in your area. Search on the United Way of Pennsylvania website.
